Stefan Wächter

It was a great pleasure for me when, in the autumn of 2023, I received the invitation to judge the Papillon and Phalène breeds at the World Dog Show 2025 in Helsinki. My first encounter with the Papillon breed was over 40 years ago, as a teenager, and the fascination and love for them has remained to this day.

My heart skipped a beat when the organizer informed me of the entry numbers: 112 Papillons and 28 Phalènes, making a total of 138 dogs entered. At this point, I would like to thank my fellow judge, Annukka Paloheimo, who took on judging the Phalènes and the Papillon puppy classes.

First of all, I would like to thank the organizers of the Finnish Kennel Club for the first-class organization and hospitality, as well as my very competent ring team for their professional support in the ring at the largest dog show of the year.

The venue, the exhibition grounds in Helsinki, is the perfect place for such a show of superlatives. There were spacious rings as well as plenty of room for exhibitors and visitors around the rings.

The extensive experience of the organizers was evident in every aspect of the event.

On the day of the show, I judged 93 Papillons in the various age classes. Exhibitors from many countries presented an impressive number of first-class representatives of the breed.

The highlight of my judging on that day was awarding Best of Breed to the two-year-old bitch Mi'Diliva's The Perfect Storm. She is a magnificent bitch who completely won me over with her overall appearance both standing and in movement. She embodies the elegance that is so important for a Papillon.

Her expressive head with dark eyes and typical "butterfly ears" accentuate her expression. Her harmonious and well-proportioned body, abundant and glossy coat, light-footed, elegant and proud movement, along with her temperament and presentation, convinced me in every respect.

At this point, I would like to once again congratulate the winners and thank all exhibitors for their sporting and fair behavior. It was an honor for me to judge so many beautiful Papillons in the ring.

A day that will forever remain in my memory with many positive impressions and wonderful moments.

WORLD DOG SHOW

The Finnish Papillon and Phalène Club (Suomen Papillon- ja Phalène yhdistys ry) provides breed information about Papillons and Phalènes. The club representing these breeds was established in the late 1970s as a sub-section of the Finnish Toy Dog Association. It was registered in 1981 as an association for enthusiasts of the breeds, and in 2001 it became an independent breed club. Today, the club has nearly 500 members. Its mission is to promote and support both breeds, relying on voluntary efforts.

WDS Helsinki offered a magnificent opportunity to admire dozens of beautiful Papillons and Phalenes. The entry was truly impressive, with 112 Papillons and 28 Phalenes. Due to the large number of dogs entered, the Papillon puppies as well as all Phalenes were assigned to another judge.

Following both breeds was a bit challenging, as the rings were not located directly side by side.

The breed club's support merchandise was available ringside and also by our partners "Breedo" booth during the breed presentation. Tote bags and reflectors, in particular, were very popular among visitors.

At the ringside, it was thrilling to observe the judge's selections and to exchange thoughts with fellow breed enthusiasts.

Thank you for all the wonderful encounters in Helsinki. We look forward to meeting again at the Winner Shows in December or at other upcoming events.
